Privacy & Data Protection

The data controller in relation to any personal data you supply is Hamilton Insurance DAC.

How the Insurer uses your personal data/who we share it with: The Insurer may use the personal data they hold about you for the purposes of providing insurance, handling claims and any other related purposes (this may include underwriting decisions made via automated means), for offering renewal terms, research or statistical purposes and to provide you with information, products or services that you request from them or which they feel may interest you. They will also use your data to safeguard against fraud and money laundering and to meet their general legal or regulatory obligations.

Sensitive personal data: Some of the personal information, such as information relating to health or criminal convictions, may be required by the Insurer for the specific purposes of underwriting or as part of the claims handling process. The provision of such data is conditional for them to be able to provide insurance or manage a claim. Such data will only be used for the specific purposes set out in their notice.

Disclosure of your personal data: The Insurer may disclose Your personal data to third parties involved in providing products or services to them, or to service providers who perform services on their behalf. These include their group companies, affinity partners, brokers, agents, third party administrators, reinsurers, other insurance intermediaries, insurance reference bureaus, credit agencies, medical service providers, fraud detection agencies, loss adjusters, external law firms, external auditors and accountants, regulatory authorities, and as may be required by law.

International transfers of data: The Insurer may transfer Your personal data to destinations outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"). Where they transfer Your personal data outside of the EEA, they will ensure that it is treated securely and in accordance with the Legislation.

Please visit www.hamiltongroup.com for further privacy notice information and full contact details of the Data Protection Officer.
